

ALISON COVINGTON AM

Good360 Australia Founder & Managing Director

Alison brought the 'Good360' charity to Australia which offers businesses a sustainable and community focused option to redirect their surplus product to help people and our planet. Their mission is to ensure the excess goods and services that businesses produce every year flow to people in need rather than going to waste.

Good360 is Australia's largest online marketplace connecting businesses' unsold brand-new goods to Australians in need.
